Dear Pappa

I will answer your letter. Do you intend to pasture that piece you sowed to vetch. How is Mage's foot getting along. I didn't know any thing about you getting 2nd prize because I don't have any time to read the Telegram or Journal. They have already began to contest the election returns of Yamhill. I expect the brewery is putting on improvements to gain public sentiment. I wish you could have gotten a stopover ticket That's alright about that $5.50 of Fred paid me that the day we came down here Latorrette's boys ~~is named~~ ^{name is} ^{called} Lyman. It rained hard here last night and was so windy I couldn't hold an umbrella. My overcoat was my best friend. It rained so that I only got to work four hours yesterday.

Your son,
Clifford Walker,
