Rev Mr Lyman

Dear Sir. After you left here I wrote to Mrs Dues and after several days received a card saying that a letter directed to Mrs W. C., Rogers East Hartford Conn would reach her sister. I soon wrote a letter to that address and have waited hoping to get a letter from her before I wrote to you; but last Saturday Eddie found the letter I wrote still in his pocket so I have concluded to wait no longer as it was quite probable you might be in E Hartford on business & so see Gam before I should hear. We are all well as usual at home. Jennie writes quite cheerfully of her situation in Agawam and expects to come home next Thursday for a weeks vacation.

Christmas is nearly here but such seasons bring very sad as well as pleasant memories to those whose homes have been so sadly desolated.
We should like to hear from you at any time.

With kind regards
E. L. Peck.
