

Dear Mama,

As Mrs. Peeler did not come in I came. I called at Pa's
He is about the same Grandma H was sitting up ~~and~~ in bed, and they were feeding her. She takes her meals quite regularly.

Has had no more sinking spells since Saturday
but nervous spells.

She may never There is a strong temptation to go to the Phone again but I guess I'll have to resist it.
Though we are all anxious to hear from you.

Don't worry about us. We are the ones to feel anxious. I will go home by Morgans as Ellen told Clifford she would have some bread for us this afternoon.

Goodbye
Your loving husband
