

Clipping from Washington Independent (Hillsboro), 6/7/1881
Copied from a microfilm reel at the Hillsboro Public Library.

FOREST GROVE.

June 14th, 1881.

Dr. Crang moved to Astoria last Monday, whither he goes to practice his profession.

H. C. Lieser moved into the Roe house last week.

Jesse Crosley pulled up stakes and went to McMinnville where he has pitched his candy tent during the Pioneer reunion which commences tomorrow, where he will dispense sweetness to the inhabitants thereof.

Mr. David Brown is still quite poorly being confined to his bed.

Prof. Marsh was elected Assessor of the Town of Forest Grove at the last regular meeting of the Board.

Mr. Smith has erected a large lumber shed in the rear of his furniture store and shop.

Mr. Buford is building a commodious barn on the southern part of his lots in this place.

Capt. Tyler's new house is approaching completion, it is a very good and handsome edifice, a credit to Forest Grove.

The grain crops in the vicinity look well and promise good yields.

* [The Indian school buildings have been ornamented with rustic lumber and paint, the fences with white wash; they present a very fine appearance set off against the green of the fir forest back ground.