Dear ^{my} Friend

Your very kind letter of the 17th reached me upon the evening of date & in reply I would say that inasmuch as I am not prepared to accept your offer at the present time the only alternative left me is to decline it - much as I regret on some accounts to do so I shall be glad ever to regard you as a friend After every visit you have made me I have esteemed you more highly than before

You also have my best-wishes & prayers for your prosperity & happiness & may all the blessings you have asked upon me be also bestowed upon you by our Father in Heaven

Yours sincerely & truly
Mrs A. C. Torrey
