125 Years of Education

this is pacific

These photographs were taken from a film shot this fall on Pacific University's campus. The film is part of a program developed to encourage enrollment growth and increased financial support.

"The beginning of Pacific . . ."

"was marked by few buildings,"

"and small classes."

"New buildings,"

"expanded services,"

"a larger more diverse student body,"

"a successful professional school"

"and capable leadership"

"mark 124 years of progress."
