

It is now Monday morning and I can add but little more to this but hope to write more next time give much love to each one of your Husband and Children I hope little Horace will get recover as Mr Marsh thinks he is not incurable. I hope you will write particularly about him when I have letters from you

Good bye for this time

Yours
Solo.