Mayors to pop cork on benefit wine raffle

HILLSBORO — The Community Action Organization will kick off its wine raffle with a party and ceremonial ticket sale at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the group's Multi-Service Center.

Mayors Gordon Faber of Hillsboro, Lou Ogden of Tualatin, Walf Hitchcock of Sherwood and Rob Drake of Beaverton will buy the first tickets at the party. Proceeds from the fund-raiser will benefit the nonprofit Community Action Organization.

Wine will be provided by Ponzi, Oak Knoll, Cooper Mountain, Laurel Ridge, Tualatin and Montinore vineyards of the Washington County Winery Association. Three people will win 12 cases of wine valued at $1,200. Tickets are $5 and available at the center, 1001 S.W. Baseline St. in Hillsboro, and the wineries.

The drawing will be held at the 10th annual Mardi Gras Ball on Feb. 17. For more information call 648-6646.
