Governor Victor Atiyeh
Governor's Office
State Capitol
Salem, OR 97310

Dear Governor Atiyeh

I write to thank you and to let you know I depart Oregon with profound gratitude for the opportunity to work with you for nearly four years.

For those of us who are required to live in different places during our lifetimes, making a contribution in each place becomes our most important goal. Holding a position of public trust in your quality administration has enriched my eight years in Oregon beyond description. As I move on towards a new personal challenge, you may be sure I will remember most the times we have worked to make a better Oregon through the appointment process.

Though my political instincts remind me that the best candidates don't always win elections, my common sense tells me, in spite of these economic times, Oregonians will elect a man they can trust -- a man who will do what's best for Oregon -- there is only one person who can match the challenge -- my boss, Victor Atiyeh.

Good-by,

Shirley Woodrow
Special Assistant for
Executive Appointments
