

New York Home Missionary Society.

REV. A. F. BEARD, D. D., Prest.

REV. A. H. CLAPP, D. D., Treas., Bible House, New York City.

REV. C. C. CREEGAN, Secretary.

Syracuse, N. Y. Dec. 22, 1883.

Mr. J. F. Wells,

Dear Bro: If you have no minister in view I would recommend you two men, either of whom I think you might get;
1. Rev. Horace Lyman, late of Oregon, now residing at Indian Falls, Clinton Co. N. Y., He is wishing to ~~foot~~ settle in New York if the way is open. He is a graduate of Williams College and Andover Seminary. has been in Oregon for about 25 years.
He was for a time a Professor in a College.

I do not know him but Suppose him to be a good man and a fine scholar, you can address him at - Indian Falls, N.Y.

I, Rev. A. L. Greene & Poyster, N.Y. Bro. Greene is a good preacher and a man of excellent character, He is a graduate of Auburn Sem, and Hamilton College, I think, He is about 45 and has a wife and 4 or 5 children, You can address him at - Dr. Poyster St. Lawrence Co, N.Y.

Refer to Rev. O. Jenkins of Brier Hill, ^{N.Y.} and Rev. J. Cross, Richville, N.Y.

In regard to Rev. Lyman you can refer to Rev. W. M. Barratt, Bible House, N.Y. Yours
J. C. Cresson
