Dear Mr. Yoshida,

Today Mr. Muneyuki Azuma kindly hand delivered your letter to me. It was thoughtful of you to send along your greetings.

Although we discussed Japan-America Societies matters, I took up a great deal of his time recounting my warm memories of the visit to Toyama last April. It was most special and ranks very high in my memory bank among the many trips to Japan.

I felt most honored to read that JAST had made up a special booklet with my entire speech translated. Although I ran overtime in that delivery, much thought went into the content. Hopefully, these words of mine along with your good efforts and those of JAST will help in the process of understanding.

I would look forward to the next time we meet. My very best wishes to you.

Sincerely,
