

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 3. 1880.

Rev. Horace Lyman

Dear Sir:

There was $4.75 collected by me on the way up from Astoria in June, to apply on payment of bill for ~~General Minutes of~~ Year Book, which I purposed to ~~turn~~ turn over to you, at first opportunity. I put it away in safe and the matter slipped from my mind until your letter of a day or two since was rec'd. Had I seen you I should have been reminded of it long ago. Hoping that no one has been seriously inconvenienced by my neglect, I remain

Very truly yours
