Dear Vic:

A brief note in response to your recent letter.

I just want to mention that all of us enjoyed meeting you when you attended our game in Los Angeles. Was nice to have you with us.

In response to your inquiry concerning the Packer jacket, we are working on your request and will keep in touch.

Hope this note finds you enjoying a very special 1979 filled with much promise and challenge.

Best Wishes.

Dear Governor Atiyeh:

As the attached copy of my letter to Tim Marsh will indicate, we are genuinely sorry the plaque was obviously lost or stolen in shipment.

You will be receiving another shortly with our best wishes.

We will also put you on our mailing list immediately so that you will have an opportunity to "track" us a little more closely throughout the year.

Best Wishes.

Sincerely,

Mr. Tim Marsh
Communications Assistant
Office of The Governor
Salem, Oregon 97310

Dear Tim:

In reply to your letter of March 17th, I will attempt to reply while wiping the egg from our face.

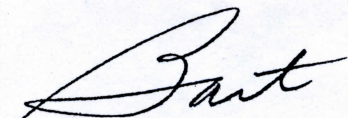

Obviously the plaque we had made up for the Governor was lost in the mail as I assumed he had received it sometime ago.

We will have another one made up immediately as well as a green Packer jacket and will send them as soon as the work is completed.

Please express our apologies to the Governor for the delay but, as I stated earlier, I assumed he had received the plaque months ago.

Best Wishes.

Sincerely,

Bart Starr
