HYMN

"O GOD, BENEATH THY GUIDING HAND" Hatton

O God, beneath thy guiding hand
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And, when they trod the wintry strand,
With pray'r and psalm they worshipped thee.

Thou heard'st, well-pleased, the song, the pray'r;
Thy blessing came; and still its pow'r
Shall onward through all ages bear
The mem-'ry of . . . that holy hour.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more. Amen.

INVOCATION THE REV. DR. CLATON S. RICE

"Hail, Old Pacific, Hail"

Hail, Old Pa-cif-ic, Hail; No-ble and strong
 Maj-es-ty as a crown rests on thy brow
 Hail, old Pa-cif-ic, hail, guide of our youth.

To thee with loy-al hearts we raise our song.
 Pride, hon-or, glor-y, love be-fore thee bow.
 Lead thou thy child-ren on to light and truth;

Swell-ing to heav-en high, loud our prais-es ring,
 Ne'er can thy spir-it die, nor thy walls de-cay,
 Thee, when death summons us oth-ers shall praise,

Hail, Old Pa-cif-ic, Hail, to thee we sing.
 Hail, old Pa-cif-ic, Hail, for thee we pray.
 Hail, old Pa-cif-ic, Hail, through end-less days.

BORN in the infant Oregon Territory—nurtured in a young lusty state—matured in a great democratic nation, Pacific University now stands on the threshold of its second century.

Its simple beginnings, its great present, and its even greater future represent a heritage of which we may all be proud. Through these 100 years our growth has rested in a service not limited to the boundaries of our campus alone. We have endeavored to extend our facilities wherever and whenever there was a need for them.

But, Pacific University seeks to do more than give knowledge alone. Its program includes the development of spiritual ideals, the building of character, the creation of healthy minds and bodies. These things have been done in the past, and these things will continue to be accomplished in the future.

At the start of its second century, Pacific University today looks to a greater tomorrow.

W. C. Geisbach
President
